

Hiring & Technical Tax Credits

The government has created a variety of tax credit programs that provide businesses income tax or payroll tax liability relief. Credit availability is based on certain criteria, including who a business hires, or if they create new or improved products and processes. These programs can be found at both the Federal and State levels.

These tax credit programs can be complex, confusing, and time consuming. As a result, businesses lose money every day and with every new hire.

Companies need a partner who knows the precise rules and regulations to identify, capture, and maximize these valuable tax credit opportunities.
