

Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC)

Billions of dollars are available to employers each year in employment-based tax credits.

YES, YOU READ THAT RIGHT – BILLIONS!

Programs like the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) provide employers with significant tax savings for hiring individuals who face barriers to hire. And yet, most of these savings go unclaimed. The HIREtech tax and credit management system and service helps you claim these savings by identifying, capturing, and maximizing all available incentives.

Simply put, we help you reduce costs and add bottom line value.
